

ANTONIO PAOLETTI

Born in Trieste on July 29, 1949, Antonio Paoletti is an industrial and commercial entrepreneur in the field of varnish and “Do it Yourself” products. He participates in many companies both on national and international levels and is currently in the Directive Council of Federcolori.

The important commercial achievements provided him with the experience and knowledge to make his contribution to the world of business associations.

- In 1998, after many years' experience, he became President of the Commercial Retailers' Association of the province of Trieste;
- in 1999 he was elected President of the Trade Association and the General Confederation of Commerce and Tourism of Trieste;
- since November 20, 2000, he is President of the Trieste Chamber of Commerce, Industry, Agriculture and Crafts, and was mandated by the Italian Union of Chambers to deal with the issues of Infrastructures and Transport in the Balkan and Eastern-European Areas; he was also delegated to deal with the implementation of the national Law 84/2001, regarding the reconstruction process in the Balkan Area;
- he is member of the Italian Union of Chambers in 2001 and since 2004 he is member of the board of Directors.
- he is President of the Alpe Adria Spa, a logistics and Inter-modal Services company and up to May 2003 he has been President for 2 years of the Napan, (Northern Adriatic Port Area Network), an association which aims at fostering the integration between the ports of the Adriatic Sea;
- he has been President of the Regional Union of Chambers, which he reestablished after years of inactivity, up to December 2002.
- he is member of the Board of Directors of the University of Trieste and of Trieste Port Authority.
- he is member of the Board of Directors of Banca Popolare FriulAdria - Gruppo Intesa.