

THE SECRETARY GENERAL PAYS A VISIT TO THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF ISTANBUL

Istanbul, 23rd January 2008 - The Secretary General of Euro-Med TDS, Luigi Troiani, visited the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce and met the Vice-President of the Executive Board, Cengiz Ersun.

Dr. Ersun is the Secretary General of the Istanbul's Chamber. Troiani met also the Director of the Department of Information Technologies and e-Commerce, Özlenen Sezer, and the Director of the Department of European Union and International Cooperation, Senem Çeşmecioğlu.

Troiani and Ersun discussed the future developments of Euro-Med TDS. They focussed their meeting on the launching of the electronic platform emed-B2B.biz, resulting from the project emedtds.com. They also looked at possibilities of increasing the cooperation between the Association and the Chamber as far as the European tenders are concerned.

A list of possible initiatives to be addressed to the next Executive Board meeting was also prepared. At this respect, Cengiz Ersun, who has been elected in the Board as the representative of the Eastern Euro-Mediterranean region (Albania, Bosnia, Croatia, Montenegro, Serbia, Cyprus and Greece) informed the Secretary General that he is planning visits to his fellow Chambers and the Traders Confederation of Greece.
